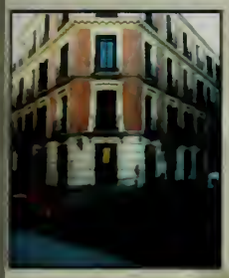
Suffolk UNIVERSITY

Senegal

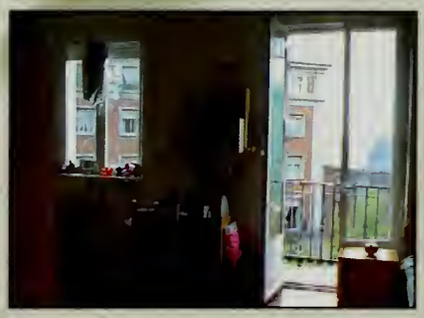
Suffolk University is the only US college / university with a campus in Dakar-Senegal, West Africa. Studying at the Suffolk University Senegal campus offers students a truly unique experience that can not be gained anywhere else.

Suffolk UNIVERSITY

Madrid



Suffolk University Madrid Campus combines the three ingredients necessary for a good American Campus abroad: a fine academic program, a wide selection of student activities (including travel), and an intimate, supportive atmosphere.



Each life converges to some centre
Expressed or still;
Exists in every human nature
A goal,

Admitted scarcely to itself, it may be,
Too fair
For credibility's temerity
To dare.

Adored with caution, as a brittle heaven,
To touch
Were hopeless as the rainbow's raiment
To touch.

[illegible]

[illegible]

Ungained, it may be, by a life's low venture,
But then,
Eternity enables the endeavoring
Again.

~ Emily Dickinson

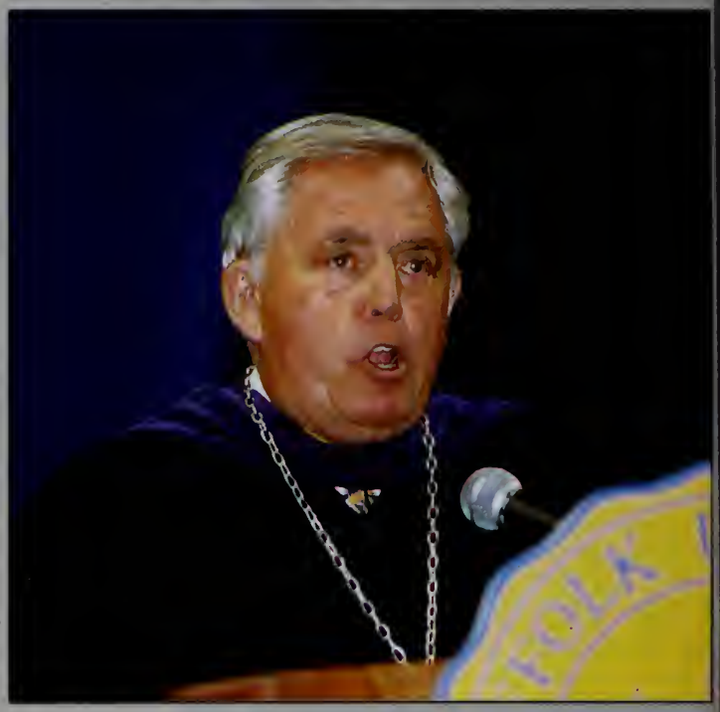
Letter from President Sargent

Congratulations and best wishes to the class of 2002. You have worked diligently at Suffolk University and are now ready to tap the knowledge gained here to embark on a bright future. Whether you will be working toward career goals or pursuing a higher academic degree, we at Suffolk University take great pride in knowing that we have helped you cross the first bridge on the road to your future. It truly has been an honor to be part of your journey of intellectual discovery.

The faculty who have nurtured you and the staff and administrators who have provided support are already looking hopefully beyond your immediate plans. You have received the gift of learning, and it's up to you to apply your growing knowledge and wisdom as a contributing member of global society. We saw only too clearly the fruits of misunderstadnging when our nation was touched by terror at the beginning of this academic year. It is up to you to sow the seeds of mutual understanding ripened through intellectual pursuits begun here and continuing long after you receive your diplomas.



As you graduate from Suffolk University you will become one of more than 37,000 active university alumni. These men and women are leaders in business, education, law, public service, the sciences and the arts. A new generation of leaders will arise from your midst to join them, and we look forward to seeing your accomplishments, both professionally and in the spheres of family, friendship and community.

The University, too, grows and changes. During your time here, Suffolk University has refined its educational mission, taking advantage of technology and forming cooperative agreements to enhance student opportunity. Students arrived here this past fall after beginning their studies on our newest campus in the west African nation of Senegal. They have added to the rich cultural mix of students from across the country and from many nations. Satellite campuses and Web-enhanced learning have greatly expanded educational opportunity. Here on Beacon Hill, we have been able to expand and improve educational and social facilities for our undergraduate and graduate students, and construction has begun on a second residence hall.

We hope you will maintain an interest in your University and stay abreast of these changes and those to come. We have demanded much of you during your time as students, and I'd like to make one more request, that you form a new relationship with the Suffolk University family. We are a community that cares about students and their success. If you have had an alumni mentor or found an internship with the help of a Suffolk graduate, you already know the value of the Suffolk University network. As you meet with success in your own life, please think about contributing to the education of future Suffolk students through gifts of time, talent, counsel, expertise, and financial resources. You have been an outstanding group of students, and our continued support is essential to our mission of providing access and excellence in education.

Letter from the Editors-

Leila Mouneimneh & Shelley T. Ciccia

Congratulations Class of 2002. We wish you the best of luck in all your future endeavors as you leave the Suffolk Univeristy and enter the real world. You are the class that emerged amidst a tumultuous time in history, but have now accepted the challenge to prove your excellence all over the world. As you look ahead to the new experiences of life, remember to think back to all of the memories that Suffolk has brought you.

Always remember those who made you laugh the most, those who challenged you the most, the most memorable classmates, the professors. Remember the "*NSync wanna-bes" at every Program Council event we had. Remember your friends in FallFest, and those who participated in the Beanpot, the 10 mile run, the walk for cancer. We all had friends that were involved in Sports, Forensics, and various other activities at Suffolk. Remember the "two-hour nights of sleep" during finals, and every free food event that Suffolk had (Hey, you paid good money to go here right?!). Never forget where you were during the moment of tragedy on September 11, 2001, or whose shoulder you cried on when your heart was broken. Your bonds at Suffolk will remain everlasting.

Don't ever forget the parties, the laughs, the clubs, the bars, and yes, even the hangovers. Dancing the night away with your friends seemed unbelievable- until the morning after. The rounds at the bars were endless, even when you could no longer stand on your feet. Remember the fake IDs that brought you and your friends closer, the first loves, "the one" you met in college, and even the jerk that was not worth your time. Every experience that you have had in the last four years will be a part of your memories of Suffolk University. Suffolk, for many of us, was the beginning of life, independence, and freedom; always keep in mind that the people who created the memories of your last four years, you met at here on Beacon Hill.

A heartfelt thank you goes out to those who have helped our small team in the creation of the 2002 Beacon Yearbook. Thanks to Steve at FinePoint Photography for the endless hours at college events. Thanks for John Carrier at Herff Jones for always extending our deadlines and driving into Boston to pick up the late pages. Thanks to Coach Nelson for the contributing your photographs to the yearbook. SGA- Thank you for allowing us to purchase new equipment to make each issue of the Beacon Yearbook a greater success. Thanks to Suffolk Free Radio for their advertisements; Sarah and the rest of the Student Activities staff for not killing us for losing the key and opening the door for us. Thanks Ben for coming up with the theme of the yearbook. Thank you Dave for your help at the end of the year in keeping us organized and taking amazing photos of Boston. Special thanks go to Dan McHugh for his patience after countless hours of complaining, dedication, and assistance in photography. We hope you are pleased with the finished product.

Those of you who know me, thank you for influencing me in ways I never thought were possible. A special thank you goes out to those who have reminded me that life is not always pleasant. Thank you for helping me grow. To that special person who has held my heart, thank you for being everything to me. No matter where life takes us, you have had an impact on my life like no other. I thank you for being you. Class of 2002, Live life to its fullest and take no regrets. ~ Shelley.

Although I am not a member of the class of 2002, I would like to thank those from this class who have touched my life. Pete, Pat, and the guys from Suite 306, I connected with you guys first...thanks for all you gave me. Jimmy, Sevi, Mark, Chris, don't forget the good times. Juan, you are a true friend. Adam, I hold a place in my heart for you. Guy, you mean more to me than I can say. Thanks for always being there. And Shelley--my inspiration and my friend, thanks for everything.

I'll never forget any of you, and I will miss you all. I hope our paths cross again, but if not, good luck in in the future. ~Leila

Water Works

Senior Week is the "Grande Finale" to all the hard work and dedication that each Senior has contributed to Suffolk University. Senior Week is a culmination of festivities that lead up to the day of graduation and is sponsored by the Student Government Association Senior class officers.

This year, the Class of 2002 officers held a two-day cruise to Nova Scotia, courtesy of Scotia Prince Cruise Lines, A Senior Luau at Water Works in Quincy, a Red Sox game at Fenway, and a Senior Breakfast at the Marriot Copley the morning of Graduation. For those who attended, Senior Week was the last chance to make new friends, and to create everlasting memories.

International Thanksgiving Dinner

On November 19, 2001, people of all ages, religions, and ethnic backgrounds, including students, faculty, alumni and staff, gathered together to enjoy a feast of turkey, stuffing, and pumpkin pie in celebration of the Thanksgiving holiday. The international Thanksgiving dinner provides an opportunity for students from a variety of nations and cultural backgrounds to experience what most Americans do every year. It gives them a chance to share a traditional Thanksgiving meal and learn about how the tradition of Thanksgiving began.

HALLOWEEN

"And the prize for the best costume goes to…Shower Boy!" What do Miss Piggy, Charlie Chaplin, and America's Most Wanted have in common? They all made an appearance at this year's Halloween Party. Held on the evening of October 25, 2001, the Halloween Party was filled with great music, food, dancing, and prizes. Also spotted were a gorilla, the Grim Reaper, Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz, and the devil in a blue dress. For most college students, a typical Thursday night would probably not include hanging out with such characters, but the 2001 Halloween Party proved to be a great success.

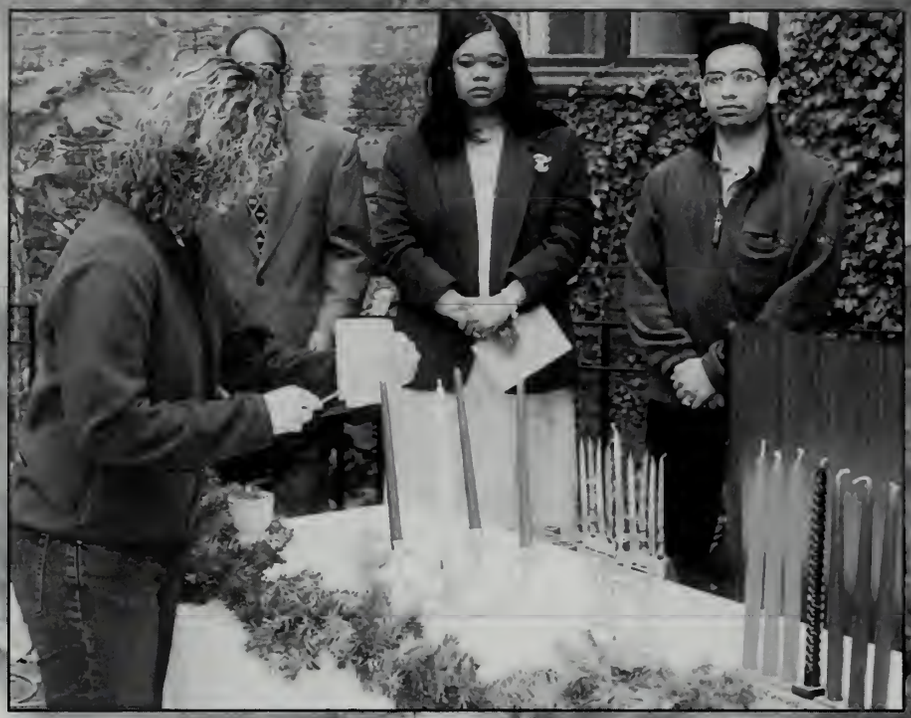
FALLFEST

The annual variety show known as Fall Fest, held at the beginning of Family Weekend, gives Suffolk students the opportunity to display to their family and friends a variety of musical and artistic aptitudes, such as singing, dancing, and acting. This year's show featured a performance of individual dance and step numbers, vocalists, and guitar and piano solos, as well as group numbers performed following the theme "the life of a Suffolk Student." The long, intense hours of rehearsal time are worth it in the end because Fall Fest is always a spectacular show enjoyed by all.

FALL FEST



HOLIDAY TREE LIGHTING

Every year, in light of the holiday season, students, faculty and staff in the Suffolk Community gather together in Alumni Park to celebrate the holidays of Christmas, Ramadan, Kwanzaa, and Hanukkah. In the spirit of these holidays, amid the decorating of a Christmas tree, candles are lit, carols are sung, and speeches are shared. This annual celebration is a fantastic commencement of the holiday season.

Holiday Ball

Sponsored by Program Council, Suffolk University's annual Holiday Ball is one of its most popular events. On the night of December 6, 2001, the Sheraton Hotel was stirring with excitement as students of Suffolk University crowded into the building. Cameras flashed and voices buzzed as friends met up, chatted, dined, and danced the night away. Throw in a little 80's music and a conga line, and this successful and remarkable night will be unforgettable.

Holiday Ball

Family Weekend

A Fall Fest performance on October 19 kicked off Suffolk University's 2001 Family Weekend. This weekend gives families of Suffolk students the opportunity to visit Boston for the weekend and attend a variety of events, including a duck tour, a breakfast, and a dinner cruise on the Spirit of Boston. This weekend is an enjoyable experience for all ages.

Family Weekend

RECOGNITION DAY

This annual event recognizes the outstanding academic and co-curricular achievements of students throughout the Suffolk community. Students received awards, scholarships and other acknowledegements for their remarkable contributions both in the classroom and throughout the college community on Suffolk University's campus.

Recognition Day

Leadership

This year's Leadership Awards banquet was held at the Omni Parker House. This event is designed to recognize students, clubs/organizations, faculty, administrators, and staff whose hard work and dedication contributed to the success of campus-wide activities and programs held throughout the year. Awards were given out for the most outstanding Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshman, among other awards.

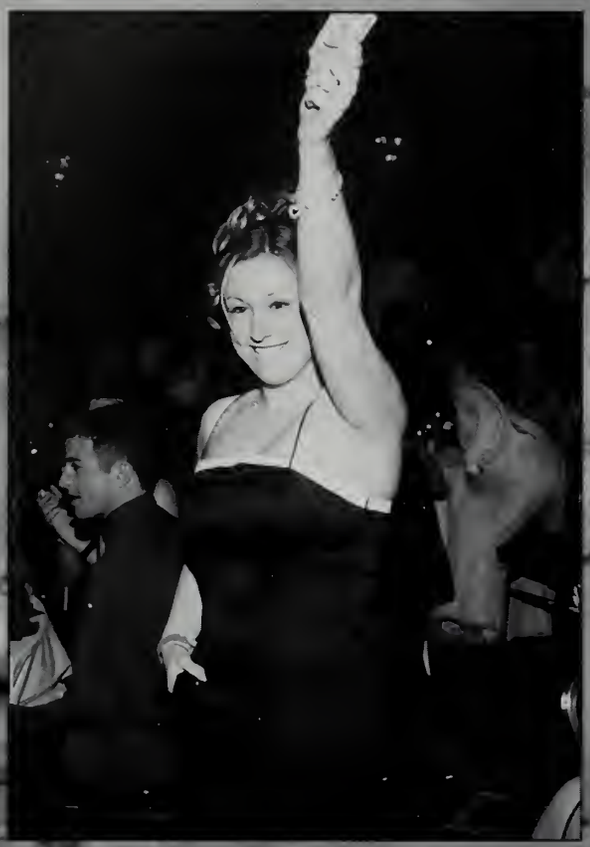
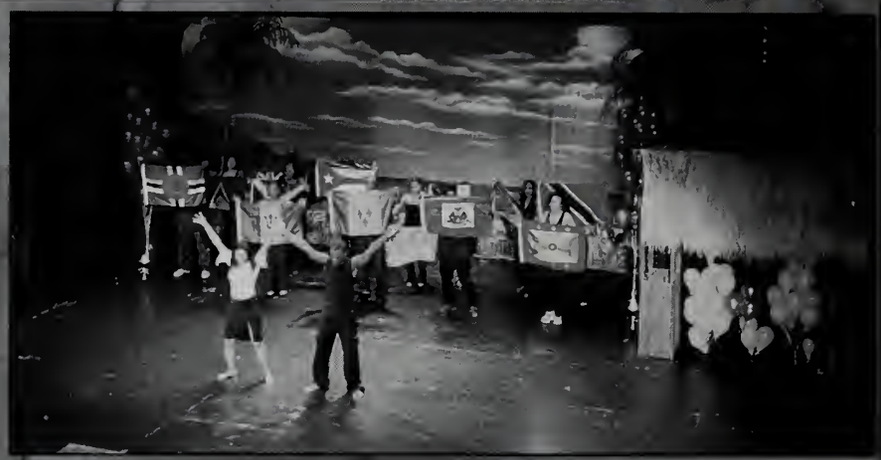
Spring Ball



Every year, Program Council's Spring Ball is the final moment to party with your friends before the summer. This year, the Ball was held on Thursday, April 25. The Long Wharf Marriott, the site of this memorable event, provided a surprsingly wide variety of good food and a relaxing and enjoyable atmosphere. Everything and everyone looked "Wonderful Tonight." And of course in the midst of all the excitement came the final "N'Sync" performance--ever. What a shame.

Spring Ball

CSN FASHION SHOW



This years Caribbean Student Network Fashion Show entitled "A Tropical Paradise" allowed students to take part in a culturally enhanced event like no other within the Suffolk community. Headed by President Craig Miller and Vice-President Alicia Stanford, participants modeled fashions and designs from around Boston to the latest music hits, while giving coordinators their input on how to make a particular scene more effective. One scene in the show was dedicated to Aaliyah Haughton, widely known for her great contributions to the music/ entertainment industry. With the dedication, enthusiasm and excitement from the participants, the CSN fashion show turned out to be a great success.

Alternative Spring Break & Service Day

These events, sponsored by the S.O.U.L.S. Community Service Center, allow students, faculty and administrators alike to volunteer their time to benefit other people/ organizations. This years "Priceless" Service Day was a one day community service opportunity, where the ASB program is a week long volunteer effort during spring break.

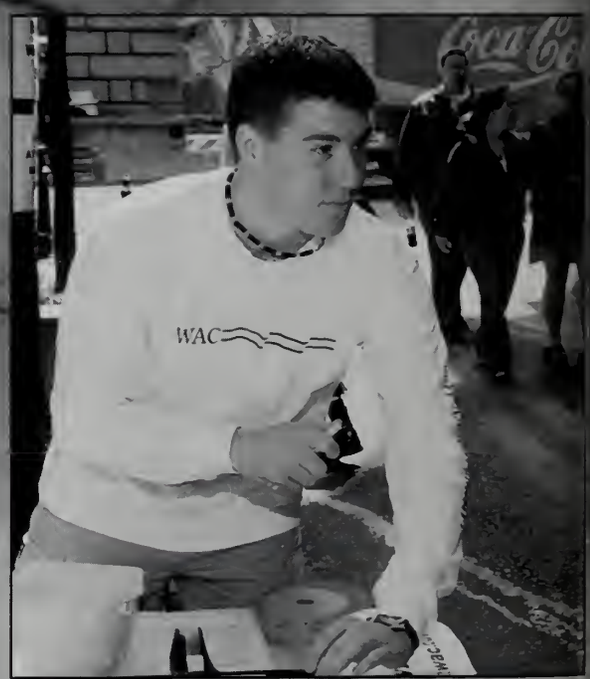
Temple Street Fair



The annual Temple Street Fair is Suffolk tradition where the community celebrates the current spring season. Many clubs/organizations use the event as a marketing tool to advertise their events and attract membership. In addition to such activities, the event offers free food, gifts and prizes to the members of the Suffolk community.

We are very proud of your accomplishments. It seems like just yesterday you graduated from kindergarten and here you are graduating from college. Here's a picture to help you remember. You are now a man and soon you will set your own destiny in life, but to us you will always be that little boy.

We love you always
Mom, Dad, and Dana DeMiles

It seems like yesterday that you were born and we held you in our arms, and look at you now a college graduate. It brings tears to our eyes. You brought us joy and happiness. There are no words to say how much we are proud of you. All these years you did things on your own. We just want to wish you the best of luck. You are a great son and deserve the best. Good luck in the future. We are behind you all the way. We all know you can succeed.

We Love You!

Poppa and Momma

Mi Pequena Ashi Ashi:

Que facil es quererte y que facil es adorarte. Es nuestro orgullo adorarte hija y amiga. Eres nuestra fiel compañera. Por eso es facil quererte y adorarte. Estamos orgullozos de ti. Como estudiante eres marabilloza. No tenemos palabras para darte miles de gracias y bendiciones. Sobre todo a dios por la bendicion de aberte elegido como nuestra hija. Nuestros deseos mas grande para ti son que se abran las puertas del mundo profecional. Que dios te siga bendiciendo siempre y siempre recuerda que en nosotros tendras padres que te adoran como hija, y como amiga. Mucha, mucha suerte en el futuro.

Tus Padres,
Ahy y Lilo

Go forward Marckline!
Since a little girl, you've always desired to work hard to prepare your future. Your graduation is a step towards your goal, not an accomplishment.

You make the whole family so happy and so proud of you. We love you so much and we congratulate your efforts and sacrifices you've been through to make part of your dream become reality.
God Bless You!

Candace,

It truly seems like just yesterday that we were putting your hair in ponytails and sending you off to your first day of school. What tremendous memories. The marching band, dating, school programs (remember Butterfly Kisses, I sure do!), family trips (remember Portugal and the Grand Canyon), learning to drive, ski, and parachute.

Then before anyone knew it you went off to college. It was just yesterday, wasn't it?

Now you've grown and matured into a confident, charming, and intelligent young woman. As you graduate from Suffolk University an important part of your life closes and a new and exciting part of your life begins. The best is yet to come. We love you and couldn't be more proud.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Mark

Adam-

Congratulations from your two biggest fans!

Dana...

From the first day I held you in my arms, I've been proud to be your mum; today is no different. Today I look in amazement at the man before me, knowing the struggles we both faced through out your entire life and being able to see the intelligent, handsome young man you grew to be; it made every hurdle worth jumping.

I wish every mother had the privilege of have such a dedicated, loving, hard working son. I'm thankful that my wish came true in you. I love you, appreciate you and will continue to be the proud mother of such an incredible young man. Congratulations Son, your accomplishments will never cease to amaze me.

I Love You!

enduring FREEDOM

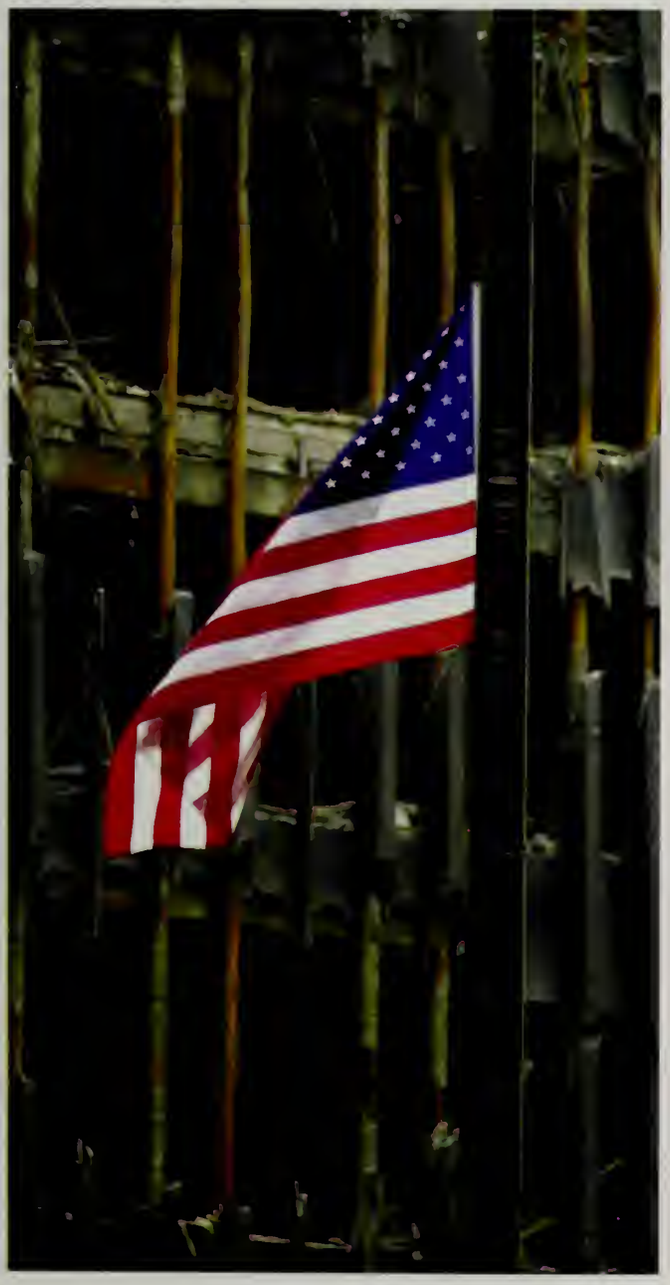
Tuesday, September 11, 2001, will be remembered as a tragic day that changed the world. That morning, a plot, masterminded by terrorist Osama bin Laden and the al-Qaeda network, was put into action. Two hijacked commercial airliners were flown into New York City's World Trade Center Towers, ultimately causing their collapse. Immediately following the incident, another hijacked airliner crashed into one side of the Pentagon in Washington, D.C, and a fourth plane crashed in Pennsylvania. Thousands of lives were lost, citizens were terrified and the world was in shock.

Following that mournful day the United States experienced anthrax scares, continued security threats and the reality of war. Despite the horror, fear and heartache, U.S. citizens united and their patriotic spirit soared. President Bush promised: "We will not tire, we will not falter, we will not fail." Through that statement and the remarkable sense of national pride exuded by U.S. citizens, it became evident that no threat, great or small, could deter the United States resolve for enduring freedom.

In response to the shocking tragedy, President George W. Bush addresses the nation offering strength, comfort and patriotism.

Ailing airlines urge citizens to defy terrorists' attempts to disrupt lives by reboarding airplanes.

Thousands of people world-wide donate blood and volunteer their services to aid U.S. recovery.



An overwhelming spirit of unity and national pride arises out of the smoldering ashes and human devastation from the September 11 attacks on the United States.
